Message from Zonta Club of Amherst President:

Dear Zontians,

I am honored and excited to be leading our Zonta Club of Amherst, District 4. It is a privilege to have members with such skills and talents to support our mission.

The summer dinner at Mary-Diana's this past June was a lovely way to move into our new year. With some solid work after delicious food, we were able to cover the agenda and set the basics for our calendar 2016-17 year. Such great ideas regarding fundraisers, speakers, and service projects were brought to the table. Thanks to our hardworking club, we have already put some of these ideas into motion.

Continuing to grow this club even stronger is my personal goal while having the opportunity to lead. At our upcoming meeting, we are fortunate to have Amherst Town Clerk, Marjory Jaeger to speak to us about women and leadership. We have a great year coming up!
