Message from Zonta Club of Amherst President:

Dear Zontians,

We have been reminded of the dynamic women in power as we celebrated International Women's day on March 8th. "Be Bold for Change" is the motto for 2017 to continue to engage and support women. We are fortunate that our community has a wealth of successful women leaders.

On March 28th, we will be hosting one such leader. Bridget Niland of Daemen College will speaking with our Amherst club. Please join come for our dinner meeting at Giancarlo's!

-Kathy S Reynolds

AT OUR MEETING, LET'S DISCUSS THE 2019 Centennial District Conference!

"The Zonta Club of Buffalo wishes to thank the District 4 Board for the opportunity to host this special District Conference in the city where it all began.

Marian de Forest believed it and Zontians have achieved it!

This notice is to invite all interested Zontians to the first planning meeting for the Centennial District Conference to be hosted in Buffalo, NY by the Zonta Club of Buffalo. We are meeting in person starting on April 6th at 4:30 PM at the Hauptman-Woodward Medical Research Institute (HWI) located at 700 Ellicott Street. Parking is also available on the Washington Street side of HWI. This planning conference will need many Zonta Club, member's hands. Please come with your interests in mind.

We will need Committee chairs for upwards of 12 different conference committees just to start the planning. We will need volunteer participants for each committee. We will need fundraising ideas and we will need the developers. We will need media ideas to assure we receive the necessary publicity and we will need finishers to be there the day of the conference. We will look forward to participation from clubs in any Area in District 4."

Please RSVP to Toni Majchrzak, Chair

compass house
A new direction for a better life.

Thank you to Candice Fletcher-Pacheco from Compass House for joining us at our February meeting. It was a very captivating and information talk and we were very pleased to be able to help out with collecting needed items!
